

Couple Weds in Plane At St. Paul Airport

When Katherine Buskirk of Spring Valley, Wis., said "yes" to Arnold W. Hatfield's "will you," the young man went so high in the air that he arranged for an airplane wedding, which was performed over the St. Paul airport late yesterday. Mr. Hatfield is a student at the St. Paul College of Law. The ceremony in the clouds was preformed by Rev. Charles L. Grant, while C. B. "Chad" Smith operated the plane.
